Fax: (613) 729-6206

"We are most appreciative of the support provided by Sr. Joan and the Institute for Catholic Education who supported this project through the leadership of Gerry Bibby, Executive Director of EOCCC. Also, Dale Henderson should be commended for her ability to motivate and inspire the teacher writers to complete a project with such high expectations. I am confident that you will find Catholic Curriculum Frameworks a most practical and supportive planning tool for junior and intermediate teachers." Ann Perron, Director of Education

NOCCC NEWSLETTER

NOCCC would like to notify all of her readers that after the production of the October Newsletter, NOCCC will only be mailing the newsletter every second month. The Newsletter will be produced monthly and you can read it on the website at www.noccc.on.ca. We invite you to join us on the website monthly for all the latest NOCCC news.

Our Principal's handbook for morning prayer was mailed to our Partner boards in late August. From all accounts, it was well received.

The prayers in this resource were submitted by the children who attend classes in all of our Partner boards. The resource includes a section for elementary children, secondary students and a section for teachers.

A special thank you to the teachers and children who submitted prayers. None of our work would be possible without the continued support of our Partner boards.

Morning Prayer

Dear God,

It's going to be a wonderful day.

Thank you for giving us this day to play.

Help us to be good in what we do.

Thank you for the world and we love you.

Amen
